Bodo Oral Histories, Dynasties & Modern Accords

Ancient Monolith Capitals, Medieval Kingdoms, and Constitutional Milestones

---

1. Ancient Monarchies & Archaeological Monuments

Kachari Kingdom of Dimapur & Maibang (10th Century – 1854)

Ruled by Kachari kings across the Dhansiri valley and Cachar hills. Left magnificent monolith pillar monuments at Dimapur, palace fortifications at Maibang, and river palaces at Khaspur.

Kamata & Koch-Mech Hegemony (15th – 16th Century)

Close kinship between Koch and Mech lineages culminating in the military genius of General Chilarai and Maharaj Nara Narayana, patronizing early vernacular translations.

2. Modern Constitutional Accords & Autonomy

• Bodoland Autonomous Council (BAC) Accord (1993): First formal tripartite accord establishing administrative autonomy for Bodo areas north of the Brahmaputra.

• Bodoland Territorial Council (BTC) Sixth Schedule Accord (2003): Historic accord creating the autonomous Bodoland Territorial Region (BTR) under the Sixth Schedule of the Indian Constitution, directly accompanied by Bodo language recognition under the Eighth Schedule.

• Comprehensive Bodo Peace Accord (BTR Accord) (2020): Landmark peace accord signed between the Union Government, Assam State, and all NDFB factions, securing comprehensive cultural, economic, and educational development.
